

ECONOMIC DEPARTMENT

The department was founded in 1963.

The basic direction of researches is an economic substantiation of steady development of agrarian and industrial complex of Northern Kazakhstan.

Scientific potential: 6 doctors of sciences, 31 candidates of sciences and 17 masters.

The following results have been reached in 2009-2012:

- It have been given the offers on the development of process diversification of agrarian industry in "Karzhynkol-A" Ltd. Egindikol area Akmolinsk oblast and the definition of technique of competitive positions of the enterprise in the concrete markets of production of agrarian sector are given;

-carried out marketing researches of solvency rural and urban population Akmolinsk oblast and Astana city.

- developed:

-recommendations on increase of competitiveness of the agrarian enterprises on the basis of diversification in their activity;

-technique of the comparative analysis of economic efficiency of "know-how" of grain;

-technique of a comparative estimation of social and economic efficiency of technologies of agriculture in manufacture of grain;

- the design procedure of prospective and actual incomes at full or partial destruction of agricultural crops.
For last 10 years 20 monographies, 2 recommendations and over 500 scientific theses, clauses and reports have been published.

Scientific researches are realized on:

- research of influence of adaptive systems and resource-saving technologies of agriculture on labour productivity in grain manufacture (on materials Akmolinsk oblast);

- research of the questions of increase of the effectiveness system of management by subjects agro complex on the basis of performance of principles of economic management;

- development of the recommendation on increase of competitiveness of agrarian economy on the basis of diversification an agricultural production and development of alternative kinds of activity for strengthening potential of rural territories;

- problems of industrially-innovative development of agrarian sector of economy in Republic Kazakhstan;

- prospects of development of microcrediting in the Republic of Kazakhstan;

- core to directions of perfection of market economy in Northern Kazakhstan

- actual problems of perfection of management in agrarian and industrial complex.

Partners: "Kazakhstan institute of standardization and certification" RSE, "Turan-Profy" International professional academy", " Central-Asian advisers" agency, " Regional development" scientific research institute, "TECHNOPARK UNISCIEN TECH" Ltd.

On the basis of the Economic department the Center of agrarian development economic problems (CADEP), with a view of coordination of applied economic researches in the field of agriculture and increase of their efficiency was created.

