

Seminars on

"The implementation of state policy in the agro-industrial complex" to akims of rural districts

There were three seminars concerning to the basic technological features of dairy cattle breeding industry . The seminars were given in the Karaganda region «Tasbulak» sanatorium, Pavlodar region «Moiyldy sanatorium» and Akmola region Shchuchin resort.

During the seminars there were lectures on "Cow" block to acquaint participants with information of breeds of cattle milk productivity trends, methods of their selection and breeding. The problems of artificial insemination, assessment of animals on quality indicator of meat type conformation , udder assessment of cows, cows limb of milk and milk-meat direction were also discussed.

The problems concerning to the beef house technology, young stock breeding processes, the process of milk production, evaluation, storage and milk transport to processing centers were considered in "Comfort" block .

At the end of seminar there was an examination in the form of the draft business plan for the establishment of production cooperatives of milk acceptance. The rural akims participated in the drafting of the business plan.

The business plan projects were made in the well-designed presentations, decorations on a poster A1 to A3 sheets. According to the projects review results of business plans the marks sheet with each akim`s assessment of performance was filled.

The certificates were given to Karaganda, Pavlodar and North-Kazakhstan region`s akims after workshops and critical designs review.

