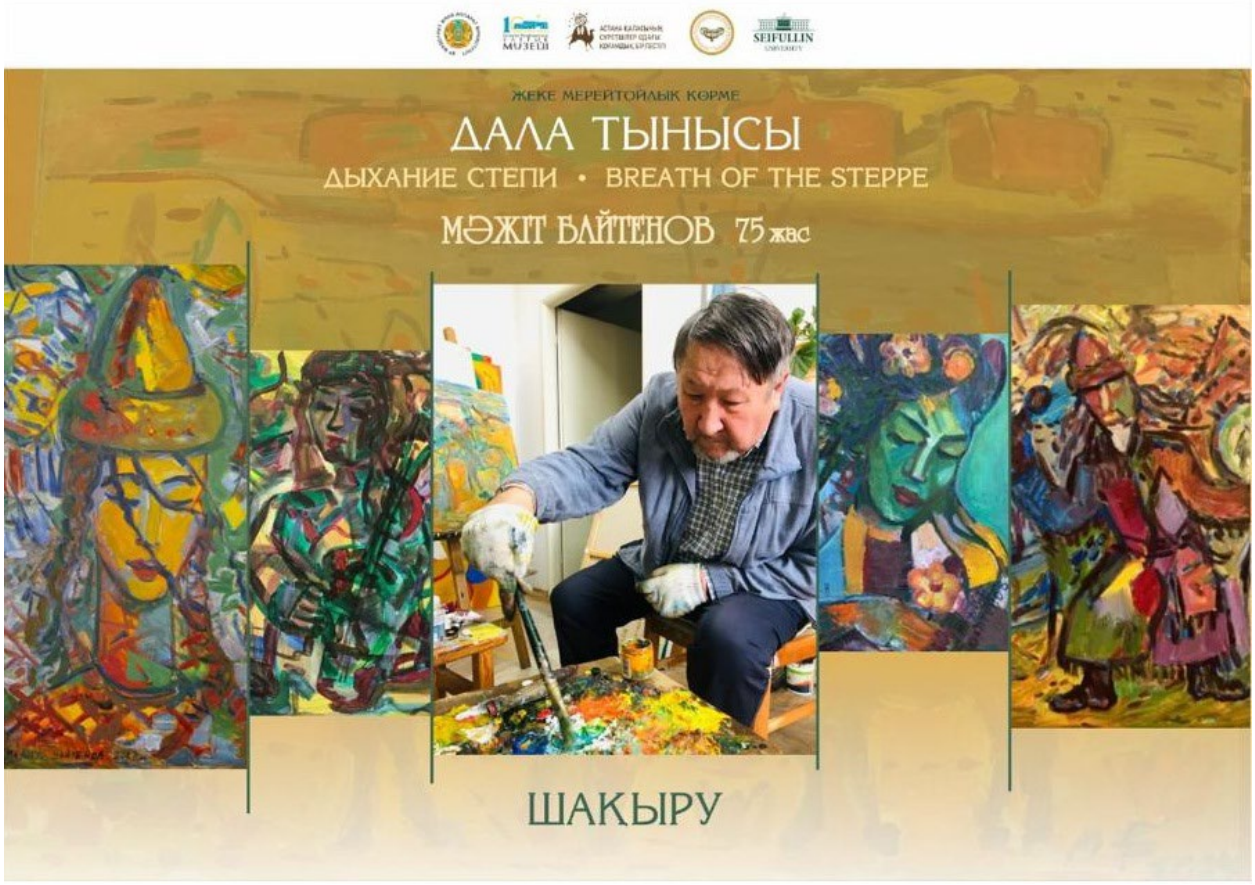
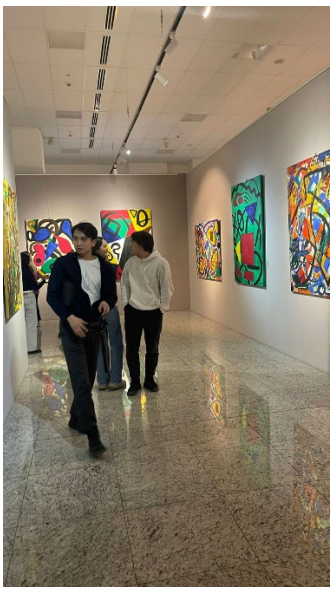
Personal exhibition «Dala tynysy» (The breath of the steppe))
by Professor of the Department of Architecture and Design Mazhit Baitenov



On January 9, 2025, the National Museum opened a personal exhibition «Dala Tynysy» (The breath of the steppe) by Mazhit Baitenov, Honored Cultural Worker of the Republic of Kazakhstan, academician of the Academy of Arts and member of the Union of Artists of Kazakhstan, Professor of the Department of Architecture and Design.

The exhibition is dedicated to the life of nomads, their way of life, traditions and spiritual heritage, which is clearly expressed in each of the artist's works. Mazhit Baitenov is one of the iconic representatives of modern Kazakh art, able to convey in his canvases not only visual beauty, but also the deep spiritual meaning of national culture.

The exhibition features 110 paintings demonstrating a variety of themes and subjects. Baitenov's works are known far beyond the borders of Kazakhstan: they are kept in the A. Kasteev State Museum of Art, private collections in Kazakhstan, Russia, Germany, Israel, Canada and the USA.


The exhibition, housed in the Temporary Exhibition Hall of the National Museum, lasted until January 13, 2025. This is a unique opportunity for visitors to see the work of the master, whose works reflect the breath of the steppe and the centuries-old history of the Kazakh people.
